The Noble Poets' Poetry Workshops

The Noble Poets' Poetry Workshops provide a practical, intimate, and supportive environment for the study of poetry writing and publishing. Various topics, themes, and approaches are presented. Participants engage in a variety of writing exercises and are encouraged to share in the group discussions and explorations. Exercises are guided by published poets. The groups are small and offer a diverse range of artistic ability and expression. Emphasis is placed on helping poets strengthen their craft and commitment to writing. Workshops are one and two-day events, held three times per year at various West Coast locations. See inside for details and enrollment.
