News & Announcements

Welcome to the Winter 2006 edition of the Training Leadership Program Newsletter.

We have had an amazing three months, full of exciting changes. As you know, we originally set out to train people to become powerful, effective, and engaging non-profit organizers and leaders in order for them to affect social change in positive and lasting ways.

TLP has been successfully doing that for seven years now. We have had the great benefit of meeting and working with the most amazing, dynamic, and creative people in almost every field of non-profit work; we are delighted to be a part of what's positive and healthy in the world.

If anything, the last three months have shown us that we are very much on the right track. We are continuing an energy, a momentum that our community leaders desperately need in order to be more effective communicators and administrators. We are empowering people to believe in and develop their talents in order to make their non-profits better managed and more effective organizations. Ultimately, we are helping people to help our world communities. This is no small task. But it's such satisfying and necessary work.

Part of our core value as a company speaks to the necessity of reaching out to others, being useful, and helping other people achieve even greater brilliance.

We are doing this and doing it well!

The Training Leadership Program is a non-profit organization that promotes social change through leadership training and consulting to progressive non-profits.

The Training Leadership Newsletter is published quarterly and communicates team information, initiatives, articles, and news.

New Clients!

The non-profit group Kiva (www.kiva.org) booked an Art of Leadership session with us for the spring. We are currently preparing a customized program for them and looking forward to handing the reins over to one of our new trainers.

New Hires!

We have two, incredibly-talented trainers joining us in January. Please make them welcome!

Khris Moss is a motivational speaker and trainer with 12 years of experience in non-profit administration. Most recently, Khris worked for the Palo Alto Group, a firm dedicated to the developmentally challenged.

Craig Stevens is a Technical Trainer from Delaware, where he worked for YouthStart and served as a member of the board on two non-profits.

Welcome, Khris and Craig!

"The TLP training that my staff and I received has made such a difference in the way we relate to each other.

We now enjoy a higher-quality, more productive level of communication, which has made a big impact on our ability to serve needy children in the community...

...the staff now has more energy for, and joy in, what we're doing."
